

The Gazette of India

EXTRAORDINARY

PART I—Section 1

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY

No. 8] NEW DELHI, THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1953

MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 8th January, 1953

SUBJECT:—Establishment of the office of the Deputy Chief Controller of Imports and Exports at Cochin.

No. 6-ITC(PN)/53.—In view of several representations made to the Minister for Commerce and Industry, the Government of India have decided to open a separate Import-Export Trade Control Office at the port of Cochin under a Deputy Chief Controller of Imports and Exports and to re-arrange the licensing jurisdiction of the port offices at Bombay and Madras.

2. The office of the Deputy Chief Controller of Imports and Exports will begin to function at Cochin on 15th January 1953 with licensing jurisdiction over the State of Travancore-Cochin and the districts of South Kanara, Malabar and Coimbatore of Madras State.

3. With effect from the same date, the State of Hyderabad will be added to the licensing jurisdiction of the Deputy Chief Controller of Imports, Madras by transfer from the jurisdiction of the Joint Chief Controller of Imports at Bombay.

4. In modification of the description regarding jurisdiction of port offices given in paragraph 4 of Chapter II of the Import Trade Control Handbook of Rules and Procedure, 1952, applications should, after the 15th January 1953, be addressed to the Joint/Deputy Chief Controller of Imports and Exports, at Calcutta, Bombay, Madras and Cochin, depending on where the firm, or in the case of an actual user the factory, is situated, as indicated below:—

Joint Chief Controller of Imports & Exports, 4, Esplanade East, Calcutta	Joint Chief Controller of Imports & Exports, Ghulam Muhammad Building, Nicol Road, Ballard Estate, Bombay.	Deputy Chief Controller of Imports & Exports, Custom House, Madras	Deputy Chief Controller of Imports & Exports, Cochin
Assam, Bihar Orissa, West Bengal, Cochin, Behar, Manipur, Tripura, Andaman & Nicobar Islands & U. P.	Bombay, Delhi, Madhya Pradesh, Punjab, Jammu & Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, PEP-SU, Rajasthan, Saurashtra, Vindhya Pradesh Ajmer, Bhopal, Himachal Pradesh, Ootch and Bilaspur.	Madras (excluding the districts of South Kanara, Malabar and Coimbatore), Hyderabad, Mysore & Coorg.	Travancore-Cochin and districts of South Kanara, Malabar and Coimbatore of Madras State.

5. Applicant firms etc. residing in the State of Travancore-Cochin or districts of South Kanara, Malabar and Coimbatore of Madras State should, after the 15th January 1953, submit their applications for import licences to the Deputy Chief Controller of Imports and Exports, Cochin. Applicants residing in the State of Hyderabad are advised to address their applications for import licences to the Deputy Chief Controller of Imports at Madras and not to the Joint Chief Controller of Imports at Bombay.

6. Arrangements are being made for the transfer of

(i) all pending applications relating to the State of Travancore-Cochin and the districts of South Kanara, Malabar and Coimbatore of Madras State from the port office at Madras to the port office at Cochin; and

(ii) of all pending applications relating to the State of Hyderabad for import licences for the period January-June 1953 from the port office at Bombay to the port office at Madras. Applications relating to the previous licensing periods will however continue to be dealt with by the Joint Chief Controller of Imports, Bombay.

7. Applicants for licences for export from the ports situated in the State of Travancore-Cochin and the districts of South Kanara, Malabar and Coimbatore of Madras State should, after the 15th January 1953, submit their applications to the Deputy Chief Controller of Exports, Cochin and not to the Deputy Chief Controller of Exports, Madras.

K. B. LALL, Joint Secy.